Events and Announcements

Our 26th Annual Harvest Party is coming up soon! Every year we provide the kids of our community with an alternative to wandering around outside in the cold and dark. We create carnival games to play, with prizes to win, and we give each child a bag of candy when they leave. Our needs for this are two-fold, as always – donations of candy, and people to create and run carnival games. If you can help, please see Pastor Scott and find out how. If we don't at least half of the sign up sheet filled today, we won't be able to proceed with this event. Please pray about helping

We often have opportunities to do Community Service Projects. This is a chance to let people know that Jesus cares about their real, practical needs. If you are a person who is somewhat "handy", then you have a chance to share the love of Jesus with people who find themselves in difficult situations. See Vicki Woodward if you're willing to help.

Inductive Bible Study will meet again this Thursday. We'll be finishing up very soon, so if you've been following along on YouTube and you'd like to get some feedback on how you're doing, please feel free to join us this week as we finish fine-tuning our charting skills and start work on writing inductive questions. This is not only fun and personally rewarding, it will train you to share what you discover with other!
